PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Welcome to Probus 2026, the 50th Anniversary of Probus in Australia.

As we look forward to our new programme I would like to reflect on our December and January outings. Our very well attended Christmas Lunch held at Strangers, Parliament House was a beauty, great venue, food and service whilst our January Lunch at Piato was also most enjoyable and so easy to access by Public Transport.

At our February Meeting we will be addressed by well known speaker, Ian Thompson who will be bringing a personal perspective to his topic 'Living and Working in Japan as a Foreigner'.

Our February 20th Historic Tour of The Sydney GPO Building followed by Lunch is now fully subscribed. It is pleasing how members have embraced electronic payment to confirm attendance at our activities and outings.

Our March 9th Meeting is our AGM followed by BBQ - Trivia - Bowls as our after meeting social events. We will be asking for numbers and payment for the BBQ ($15.00) on or before MARCH 2nd

Our AGM on March 9th, obviously means members need to be elected to the various Committee positions that allow the Club to function. All positions need to be filled so please think of how you can assist your Club

I know Probus South Pacific are keen for all Clubs to celebrate the 50th Anniversary in Australia by having a special activity or event this year so I ask you to put your 'Thinking Caps' on and pass on your amazing ideas!

Lunch after the Meeting will be at La Piazza.

Bruce Gowing
President

CHRISTMAS LUNCH AT PARLIAMENT HOUSE

Probus Lane Cove members enjoyed a wonderful Christmas lunch at NSW Parliament House on December 8, 2025. Our group was seated in the Member's Dining Room where we were served a delectable three-course Xmas feast, which was a great start to the festive season.

Guests joining us were Andrew Sa-Cordeiro, who was with his father Nino Sa-Cordeiro, standing in for his mother Marjorie, who was unwell. Also present were Devika Wijewardene, guest of Judi & Bruce, as well as Maxine Shiell who accompanied her husband, Harry. Margaret Connolly and Carolyn Owen joined us as newly inducted members, presented with their Badges at the lunch by President Bruce. The December Birthday draw was won by Jenny Quirke, and the Lucky Door Prizes were won by David Erskine and Judi Gowing.

A great outing enjoyed by a large number of members.
